Comic Book Instructions:

1. Place the comic strips in the order you want to use for your story.
2. Choose what layout for each page you want to use.
3. Paste them each in a box or place two comics in the larger box.
4. Complete your cover sheet with the name of your comic and your name as the author. You can also place two pictures in the empty boxes on the cover sheet.
5. Place in a duotang or staple the pages together in the correct order. Add stickers to jazz it up.
5. Read your new comic strip to family and friends.

Note: If you can't read yet, have someone read your story.
